

I am a loyal XM listener and have been for the past 18 months. I travel a great deal and grew tired of the lack of quality programming across the country. XM radio provides exceptional service and quality programming no matter where I travel. I especially have come to rely on the instant traffic and weather updates. No local channel provides this level of service when I need it. Local stations, if they can be found, only give traffic updates when they want to not when I need them. I pay for these services and it should not be up to the National Association of Broadcasters to dictate what I am permitted to hear. I respectfully urge the FCC to reject the NAB's petition 04-160 and to support XM's ability to provide the kind of programming that I demand and deserve
